THE AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION inaugurates its new department—that exclusively for the public sale of Books, Prints, Manuscripts, Autographs, etc.—with the sale of the Warren C. Crane collection, which is devoted almost entirely to material illustrative of the Life and Times of Napoleon the First, his Adherents and his Opponents. The collection is composed of Autographs, Manuscripts, Books, Broadsides, Medals, Portraits, and other interesting items.

Like all true collectors Mr. Crane has been constantly culling, and in past years under the appellation of "A Merchant of Old New York" he has disposed of such items as he deemed unsuitable to include in the present unique and valuable collection.

The catalogue itself at once asserts the importance of the numbers covered therein, and which have been brought together by Mr. Crane in the manner set forth in his interesting letter to the Association, which reads as follows:

121 West 70th Street, New York City, July 1, 1913.

American Art Association, Madison Square South, New York City:

Dear Sirs—For nearly forty years I have been an enthusiastic collector of books, autographs, prints, broadsides, engravings, etc., relative to that marvelous man "The Little Corporal," the great Napoleon, of whom Lord Holland said in open Parliament "That the very persons who detested this great man have acknowledged that for ten centuries there has not appeared upon earth a more extraordinary character."

This hobby has given me a great deal of pleasure and much information. Having enjoyed the collection so well I have decided to pass it on to other collectors, and I consign it to you to sell at auction without any restrictions or reservations whatever. Your clients shall have every item at their own valuation. While the catalogue speaks for itself, I desire to state that many of the items came from the great Napoleonic Museum formed by Mr. John Sainsbury of London, the contents of which were dispersed in that city many years ago. The late Mr. John Weller, who for about sixty years was one of the most reliable autograph dealers in London, was a large purchaser at the sale, and I in turn bought many of them from him.

The autographic material in the collection is, I think, one of the most important of its kind that has been offered for sale at one time in many years. You will find twenty-eight documents signed by Napoleon, from 1793 to and including 1815, which series contains a large number of the different signatures of the Emperor as set forth in Mr. Sainsbury's work on the subject, also some signatures which are not included in the Sainsbury list, also a sheet containing five lines, in his autograph, although unsigned. The collection includes all the important years of Napoleon's life as general and emperor, excepting two, including 1814 and 1815, dates which Mr. Sainsbury did not have, and which are by no means common. There are also some sheets of Las Cases MSS. written at St. Helena, containing Napoleon's autograph corrections. There is a full set of autographs of the Marshals of Napoleon, practically all entire autograph letters.

Among the books are two volumes from Napoleon's library, a set of Ireland's Life of Napoleon, first edition, 4 vols. in red calf, the Cruikshank colored plates backed with linen, and containing a fine autograph of Napoleon, two autographs of Cruikshank and a drawing by him, and a large number of extra portraits. Also Bourrienne's Memoirs of Napoleon, 1836, 4 vols. extended to 8, bound uniform with the Ireland, extra illustrated by the insertion of about nine hundred portraits and plates, a letter signed by Napoleon, etc.

There are about 2,000 different portraits of Napoleon, including those by Desnoyer, Dickinson, Hodgets, and many others, about 250 of which are in colors, some printed in colors.

By far the larger portion of the collection relates to the French Revolution and Napoleon, but there will be found some other items which are scattered through the catalogue, mainly of an unusual or interesting character.

The catalogue will show all buyers what may be gotten together relating to this great genius, if one is enthusiastic and patient. It is fair to say that in my opinion this collection could not again be gathered together, as it contains many items of which I have not seen others.

Very respectfully yours,

WARREN C. CRANE.

Supplementing the remarks of Mr. Crane, brief comment on some of the more important lots may be made as follows:

MANUSCRIPTS AND AUTOGRAPHS.

This section includes practically a complete set of autograph letters of Napoleon's Marshals, the exceptions being Lannes and Poniatowski, the former being represented by a signature to portion of a letter in another hand, and the latter by a fine D.S. in Russian. An A.L.S. of Augereau's to Berthier is dated August, 1802; an L.S. of Eugene de Beauharnais, the stepson and favorite of Napoleon, with 7 lines in his autograph is written from Milan, 1807; an A.D.S. 1 p. of Charles Bernadotte, written as Minister of War is dated July 12, 1799; there are 2 A.L.S., 4 L.S. and 4 D.S. of Louis Alexandre Berthier, written or signed from 1791 to 1814, showing his various signatures; a 3 pp. A.L.S. of Henri Gratien Bertrand, the general who accompanied Napoleon to St. Helena, is dated Feb. 3, 1812, and is to the Duc de Feltre, written on paper watermarked "Louis Napoleon, King of Holland." The Bonaparte family—exclusive of Napoleon who is mentioned later—includes a L.S. and an A.N.S. of Caroline, the sister of Napoleon; 4 A.L.S. of Charles L. J. L. Bonaparte, Prince de Canino eldest son of Lucien Bonaparte; 3 A.L.S. and 1 L.S. of Charlotte Bonaparte, daughter of Charles Lucien; 2 A.L.S. and 2 D.S. of Jerome Bonaparte, King of Westphalia; 4 A.L.S. and 2 L.S. of his son Jerome; of Napoleon's brother Joseph there are 7 A.L.S., 1 L.S. and 5 D.S., and at least one A.L.S. or L.S. of Letitia Bonaparte; Louis Bonaparte, brother of Napoleon; Lucien Bonaparte; Marie Anne E. Bonaparte, sister of Napoleon; Pauline Bonaparte, sister of Napoleon; and other members of the family.

Jean Pierre Brissot de Warville, the celebrated Girondist leader, is represented by a 2 pp. A.L. regarding his journey to New York, etc.; 2 L.S. and 1 A.L.S. of Armand A. L. Caulaincourt, aide-de-camp to Bonaparte, include one written to Joseph Fouché; an A.L.S. a L.S. and a D.S. of Adam Philippe Custine, who fought at Yorktown; 2 A.L.S. and 1 L.S. of Charles F. J. Dugua, who accompanied Bonaparte to Egypt, one being from San Domingo with the signature of Berthier in addition to that of Dugua; a L.S. of 5 pp. of Pierre Dupont, who was defeated at Baylen and surrendered with about 18,000 men, written shortly before the capitulation; an A.L.S. of 4 pp. of General Gobert, the aide-de-camp of Murat, to Bonaparte, with mention of Generals Junot, Kleber, Destaing and Regnier; 3 A.L.S. and 1 L.S. of Emmanuel Grouchy, all signed in different ways, one being written while in prison, probably at Jeuzeles; an A.L.S. and a L.S. of Lazare Hoche, one regarding the lack of efficiency among his officers; an A.L.S. of Henri Jomini, the aide-de-camp of Ney, one with reference to the battle of Arcola, and containing interesting details of the battle of Dresden; an A.L.S. and 2 L.S. of Josephine, the former signed "Lapagerie Bonaparte."

There are 3 A.L.S. 5 L.S. and 1 A.D.S. of Jean Baptiste Jourdan, who served under Lafayette in the American Revolution, one written shortly after he had been appointed to the command of the army of the Danube, and with mention of several other generals; 3 A.L.S. and 2 L.S. of Andoche Junot, Duc d'Abrantes, one written a few weeks before his death; 5 A.L.S. and 2 L.S. of François C. Kellerman, Duc de Valmy, one of 3 pp. regarding costs, plans, etc. of his "Senatorial House"; 2 A.L.S. and 1 L.S. of Jean Baptiste Kleber, one to General Jourdan; 8 A.L.S. 1 L.S. 2 A.N.S. and 1 letter in another hand, with autograph annotation, of Marquis de Lafayette; a signature of Jean Lannes; an A.L.S. of Emmanuel A. D. M. J. Las Cases, the companion of Napoleon at St. Helena, and four pages of the Memoirs of Napoleon in the handwriting of Las Cases, with corrections in the autograph of Napoleon, also two pages of autograph notes on the English army in the autograph of Las Cases, with corrections in the autograph of Napoleon; 6 A.L.S. and 3 L.S. of Etienne Jacques J. Macdonald, Duc de Tarente, one written shortly after he had become general in chief at Naples; a D.S. a L.S. etc. of Marie Louise; 2 A.L.S. and 1 L.S. of Jean Victor Moreau, one in English, written from Morrisville, Penn., with mention of his wife; 2 A.L.S. and 1 L.S. of Joachim Murat, one with mention of the First Consul.

The collection contains what is thought to be the largest number of documents signed by Napoleon ever offered for sale at one time in this country. They total 28 and were written as early as 1793 and as late as 1815. Signed in 1793 "Buonparte," and the same year "Buonaparte"; in 1794 "Buonaparte" with 3 lines in his autograph; in 1798 "Buonaparte," while in Egypt; in 1799 "Bonaparte," also in Egypt; in 1800 "Bonaparte" as First Consul, and countersigned by Charles Maurice Talleyrand and Hugues B. Maret; also in 1800 "Buonaparte" with 2 lines in his autograph, signed also by Alex. Berthier; in 1802 "Bonaparte," countersigned by Berthier and Maret; in 1806 "NP"; in 1807 "Nap" on the margin of a letter from the Prince Sulkowski to Napoleon; circa 1810 "NP" with an autograph line, this on a letter from his sister Elisa; etc.

There is a L.S. and a 4 pp. manuscript of his son, the latter written at the age of sixteen; an A.L.S. 2 L.S. and 1 page of autograph manuscript of Napoleon III.; a L.S. of Horatio Nelson, April 30, 1779; 2 A.L.S. 2 A.D.S. and 1 L.S. of Michel Ney, Prince de la Moskowa; an A.L.S. of Jeanne Antoinette Poisson, Marquise de Pompadour, to Prince Charles de Rohan de Soubise, favourite Courtier of Louis XV.; a D.S. of Joseph Antony Poniatowski, and one of the rarest of the autographs of the Marshals of Napoleon; an A.L.S. and a A.L. of Maximilien M. I. Robespierre, both 2 pp. 4to, one stating that he had just been made president of the Society of the Friends of the Constitution; 3 A.L.S. and 2 L.S. of Anne Jean M. R. Savary, aide-de-camp to Bonaparte, one a long and important letter about the campaign in Spain, written the same year that he received the title of Duc de Rovigo; an A.L.S. of Madame de Staël, 2 pp. in which she makes reference to her father, Jacques Necker, her son and her daughter; 2 A.L.S. and 2 L.S. of Louis Gabriel Suchet, one a fine military letter to General Gadin, written shortly before he was appointed general of division under Massena; 1 A.L.S. and 4 L.S. of Charles Maurice Talleyrand, Prince de Benevent; an A.L.S. and a L.S. of Toussaint l'Ouverture, the celebrated negro general, the L.S. written shortly after he was appointed general in chief of the army of St. Domingo, and many others.

Portraits.

While the dominating feature in this section is the remarkable collection of different portraits of Napoleon, of which there are about 2000, there will be found a large number of mezzotints, stipples, etc., mainly of characters of whom there are also manuscripts or autographs. The Napoleon portraits include specimens in mezzotint, stipple, lithograph, a painting by Horace Vernet, original drawings in pencil, sepia, etc., the work of French, German, Dutch, Italian, English and other engravers or artists. They exhibit a remarkable number of conceptions of the features of Napoleon. He is portrayed full length, three-quarter length, half length, full bust, sculptured bust, etc., and with long hair, short hair, with and without cocked hat, on horseback, facing front, facing right and facing left, etc., and in sizes ranging from three feet high to three-quarters of an inch, the latter of which is said to be the smallest full length portrait of Napoleon ever engraved. Many and varied are the representations of the uniforms, costumes or apparel, from the time he was at school at Brienne to his lying in state at St. Helena.

Books.

Among the books will be found Ireland's Life of Napoleon, first edition, with the colored plates by Cruikshank, extra illustrated by the insertion of 172 portraits, views, facsimiles, etc., and with a fine autograph signature of the Emperor, dated Fontainebleau, July 17, 1805; Bourrienne's Memoirs of Napoleon, first edition, four volumes extended to eight, by the insertion of 900 portraits, views, etc., and a fine autograph signature of Napoleon, written when he was First Consul, probably some time in 1800; Bitaube's Joseph, 2 vols. 1786, contemporary red morocco by Bradel, formerly in Napoleon's library, and with his library stamp on each title; Forsyth's History of the Captivity of Napoleon at St. Helena, 3 vols. first edition, original cloth; Savary's Memoirs of the Duke of Rovigo, 4 vols. original boards, uncut; Montholon and Gourgaud's Memoirs of the History of France during the Reign of Napoleon, 7 vols.; Haudricourt's Fastes de la National Française, 3 vols., with nearly 200 engraved plates; Laskey's Description of the Medals struck by order of Napoleon, 1818, formerly owned by C. R. Taylor, containing almost 300 pencil-sketches; Ireland's France for the Last Seven Years, 1822, extra illustrated by the insertion of nearly 150 portraits and views; and many others of interest and value, including a large number of extra-illustrated works.

Broadsides.

Among the Broadsides will be found a complete set of the Bulletins issued by Napoleon during the Invasion of Russia, 1812-1813, 29 numbers, commencing with the "Premier Bulletin," dated Gumbinem, 20 Juin, 1812, in which is briefly sketched the movements of the French army, up to, and incorporating the famous "29e Bulletin" dated Molodetsckno, 3d December 1812, wherein Napoleon endeavors to prove that the elements were responsible for all his disasters in that campaign; "Buonaparte-Phobia," or Cursing made Easy to the Meanest Capacity," London, circa, 1815, and which exhibits the hysterical condition of thought of the English people regarding Napoleon; 29me Bulletin de la Grande Armée, Molodestno, Decembre 1812, printed at Paris, 1812; "Les Adieux de Buonaparte à sa Vielle Garde," Fontainebleau, 1814; "Adresse des Habitans de la Ville de Grenoble," Paris, 1815; various bulletins etc. issued during the campaign in Egypt, and printed there, and many others.

Conditions of Sale

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale, shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale, shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Delivery will not be made of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

Delivery will not be made of any purchase at any time other than between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association, will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to correctly catalogue every lot, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchase so made will be subject to the above Conditions of Sale, which cannot in any manner be modified. The Association, however, in the event of making a purchase of a lot consisting of one or more books for a purchaser who has not, through himself or his agent, been present at the exhibition or sale, will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be returned, if the lot in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, to also state the bid per volume or piece. Shipping directions should also be given. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at a reasonable charge.

London; Richard Bentley, 1836

First issue of Bentley's First Edition. In addition to the 28 plates published with the work, there are inserted 900 extra illustrations, including numerous colored portraits and views, together with a large number uncolored, on India paper and inlaid, many unusual and scarce, by prominent artists after well-known originals.

Among the above is a varied assortment of portraits of Napoleon, his Marshals, Generals, Ministers, etc.; members of his immediate family, namely, Josephine and Marie-Louise, his wives; his father, brothers, etc.; the contemporary sovereigns of Europe, with men of prominence both there and in America, such as, George III., of England; Alexander I., of Russia; William Pitt, Earl Grey, Lords Bentinck and Castelreagh; George Washington, Fulton, Aaron Burr, of America; Kosciusko, of Poland, and others.

There are several scarce views of Battle-Scenes, etc., including the line engravings of Quatre Bras and Ligny; also the plate of Napoleon's Entry into Paris in 1814, in which he is shown riding in a carriage; a facsimile of his abdication the same year; a beautifully colored plate of the Conseil des Anciens, by Labrousse after St. Sauveur; a colored portrait of Napoleon in Death taken at St. Helena, etc.

The interest and value of the above are augmented by the addition of a fine autograph signature, "Bonaparte" to a portion of a letter in another hand, signed when he was First Consul, probably some time in 1800; also are inserted an A.L.S., 2 pp. 8vo, from Bentley, the publisher; and the signature (to a part of letter) of "Bourrienne," the author of these Memoirs, and Napoleon's private secretary.

London, 1818

A unique volume, with colored armorial bookplate of C. R. Taylor, a former owner, and containing a remarkable series of pencil-sketches by him of 148 medals, obverse and reverse [nearly 300 drawings in all], copied from the originals. These sketches are mounted on about 30pp. and bound in, together with a descriptive title carefully printed in ink by his hand. Laid in are a well-executed pencil likeness of Mr. Taylor by George Dance, and a photograph of the Chevalier John Taylor, M.D.

The details of the medals are unusually distinct, exhibiting marvelous patience and skill on the part of Mr. Taylor, who must have devoted many days to the work. The occurrences commemorated begin with the Battle of Montenotte in 1796, and conclude with Napoleon's embarkation at Rochefort in 1815.

Medals sketched comprise that portion generally known as the "Mint Series," completed by the addition of those medals which were in progress at the Restoration of the Bourbons, and are chiefly from the designs of the Baron Denon, "directeur du Musée Napoléon à Paris."

346. Medallic History of Napoleon. A series of one hundred and fifty-six (list as below says one hundred and fifty-five) wax impressions from the original bronze medals, illustrating the history of Napoleon and the prominent events in his life, and a few of the eminent personages connected with him. All laid on 7 specially made trays, each in a separate sunken compartment, with complete "Explication des Médailles de Napoléon" (ms. of 32 pp. folio, written in a neat contemporary hand). All are numbered but need re-arrangement, some being out of order according to the list.

The collection illustrates the events in French history between the years 1791 and 1815. Liberty is always represented by a woman; in some cases she is presenting the Constitution to the people, or handing the keys to a warrior, that he may enter and take the desired fortress. Every event in Napoleon's career is well depicted. In some cases he is represented as a Caesar, bearing the sceptre and clothed in imperial robes. On the field of battle, in commemoration of great victories, such as Marengo, Austerlitz, etc., he is invariably represented by Victory, hovering in the air, and holding a crown and palm. He is also represented in the form of the rising sun hovering over Europe. The events of his private life are portrayed, and include his marriage, baptism of his son, etc.

A Complete Set of the Bulletins of the Grande Armée issued by Napoleon during the Invasion of Russia, 1812-1813, Nos. 1 to 29, inclusive; Nouvelles Officielles, 6 numbers; Extracts from the "Moniteur," 4 pieces. Woodcuts of Imperial eagle. Together, 39 pieces, 2 pp. and 4 pp. each (152 pp.), stitched, unbound (a few pencilled marginal notes in unknown hand). Paris, 1812-1813

A COMPLETE SET OF THE 29 BULLETINS OF THE GRANDE ARMÉE ISSUED DURING NAPOLEON'S RUSSIAN CAMPAIGN, commencing with the "Premier Bulletin," dated Gumbinem, 20 Juin, 1812, in which is briefly sketched the movements of the French army, its condition of armament, &c., up to and incorporating the famous "29e Bulletin," dated Molodetsckno, 3d December, 1812, wherein Napoleon endeavors to prove that the elements were responsible for all his disasters in that memorable campaign.

These Bulletins were dispatched to the headquarters of the French army in Paris and appeared in the official organ of the Government, "Le Moniteur," about two weeks in each instance after being forwarded from Gumbinem, Witkowiski, Kowno, Wilna, Gloubokoe, Smolensk, Moscow, and other points of issue in Russia and elsewhere.

In addition to the Bulletins there are 8 Nouvelles Officielles de la Grande Armée that were issued in Paris and printed in the "Moniteur" from January 10, 1813, to April 23, 1813, after Napoleon had forsaken the Armée at Smorgani, leaving the King of Naples in command. These contain news of the Grande Armée from time to time, the French army of the North, &c., &c. Also, there are several extracts from the "Moniteur" commenting upon certain occurrences reported in the Bulletins.

In these remarkable records of Napoleon are embodied the official accounts of the doings of the French and Russian forces during the period of the Invasion of Russia. They present in brief but vivid sentences the advance of Buonparte after leaving Dresden; the mobilization of his vast army; the seizure of Vilna, the ancient capital of the Lithuanian Gedimin, from which town Bulletins No. 4, 5, 6 and 7 were issued; the attempted capture and final occupation of Smolensk the Sacred, the "Key of Russia;" the advance on, and possession of, Moscow, from which Bulletins 19 to 24, inclusive, were sent forth and in which are published the details of the burning of the city, the evacuation thereof; retreat from Russia, &c.

Incorporated in this set is the renowned "29e Bulletin," dated Molodetsckno, December 17, 1812, wherein Napoleon states that his series of disasters in the Russian campaign were due entirely to natural conditions over which he had no control, concluding with the curt sentence about his own fine physical condition.

Jomini, De Segur, Thiers, Joyneville, and others have fully treated most of the incidents reported in the Bulletins, and it is suggested that all interested refer to the volumes of those historians for additional particulars regarding them, including, in addition to the events already noted, Napoleon's Proclamation commencing, "The second Polish war has begun," the well-known skirmishes and battles mentioned; the great generals named, with their commands, etc.; the numerous and varied reports from those in authority of the principal persons and incidents of the Invasion; the treatment of prisoners by both sides; the burning of Moscow by the Russians; the approach to that city of the French army then reduced from 420,000 men at the passage of the Niemen to 100,000; the horrors of the nine days' retreat from Moscow in the midst of intense cold; the flight of Napoleon to Paris, &c., &c.

Laid in are 18 copperplates, &c., 12mo and 8vo, of Russian scenes, including a plate after Cruikshank, a scarce one by Spendelowe, and plates by French engravers [1809-1830].

THERE APPEARS TO BE NO RECORD OF ANY SALE BY AUCTION OF A COMPLETE SET OF THESE NAPOLEON BULLETINS. THERE ARE NONE OF THEM IN THE FINE COLLECTIONS OF SAINSBURY, LATTA, &C.

DOCUMENTS SIGNED BY NAPOLEON.

The 28 signatures of the Emperor appended to these papers include most of those enumerated by Mr. Sainsbury on his well-known list of facsimiles published by Charles Tilt, London, 1836, together with several others that do not seem to appear thereon. Nevertheless, the signatures here catalogued are all genuine, and simply show the natural variations that might have occurred in writing these signatures at different periods and under changed conditions.

2835. NAPOLEON. L.S. 1 p. extended to small 4to. Ollioules, 1 du 4 moin [Nivôse]. December 21, 1793. Signed, in full, "Buonaparte."

A fine, early signature about the time he was at Toulon, and before he was made general. Orders a commandant to rejoin his company at Bandol.

2836. NAPOLEON. L.S. 1 p. folio. Marathou, le 24 Fructidor, l'An II [September 11, 1793]. Relative to the furnishing of wheat and the payment therefor. Signed, in full, "Buonaparte."

2837. NAPOLEON. Three lines and signature in his autograph, on a portion of a letter in another hand. Oblong 8vo, inlaid. [Nov. 15, 1794]. With portrait of Napoleon as a prisoner at Nice. (2 pieces).

Lines commence—"Recommendé au Ministre de la Guerre, &c." with signature,—"Buonaparte," in full.

2838. NAPOLEON. D.S. 1 p. folio, inlaid. Paris, le 17 Pluviôse, l'An IV. [Feb. 6, 1796]. To the "Ministre de la Marine" about the transfer of an officer. Signed, in full, "Buonaparte," with three lines in his autograph erased.

In this document Buonaparte is titled, "Général en chef de l'Armée de l'Intérieur."

2839. NAPOLEON. A.L.S. from Faypoult. 2 pp. folio. Genoa, le 17 Vendemiaire, l'An V [October 9, 1796]. Napoleon has signed on top margin, "Bonaparte," without the "u." Laid in is a portrait, oblong 12mo, after Johannot. (2 pieces).

Long and interesting A. L. S. from G. C. Faypoult de Maisoncelle, Minister Plenipotentiary at Genoa. Mentions the King of Naples, the arrest of Governor Olivieri whose death-warrant Bonaparte signs, the arrest of others, mostly brigands, &c.

2840. NAPOLEON. L.S. 2 pp. 4to, [Cairo], le 30 Germinal, l'An VI [April 20, 1798]. Signed, "Bonaparte," Général en Chef de l'Armée d'Angleterre. Laid in is a portrait, 8vo, of Napoleon in Egypt.

To the Minister of War relative to the appointment of Surgeon-in-chief at the Invalides, Paris, of one who acted in the same capacity in the army, but who is now unfitted for further field-service.
Documents signed by Napoleon while in Egypt are very scarce.

2841. NAPOLEON. D.S. on Native Glazed Paper, 1 p. tall folio (folded). [Aboussio, Egypt], le 3 Messidore, l'An VII [June 21,1799]. Signed in full, "Bonaparte," as General-in-Chief.

Letter from an Arab chief of the tribe of Azzale, written in Arabic, with French translation on same sheet, in which he informs Napoleon concerning an attack made by some of his soldiers upon his domicile, the robbery thereof, and prays for redress, &c. Napoleon orders the Commandant [at Ghira] to report on occurrence.

2842. NAPOLEON. D.S. 3 pp. folio, le 28 Frimaire, l'An VIII [Paris, December 18, 1799]. Rapport aux Consuls de la République. Signature, on margin, "Buonaparte," in full, with two lines in his autograph.

Notice from the Minister of War, Louis Aléxandre Berthier, with draft of a statement of an ex-chief of a squadron of horse, requesting reinstatement, &c. The report is signed,—"Alex Berthier."

2843. NAPOLEON. Passport of Joseph Bonaparte and family. 4 pp. folio, vellum. Paris, le premier Brumaire, l'An IX. [October 22, 1800]. Signed "Bonaparte" as First Consul.

Countersigned by Charles Maurice Talleyrand, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Hugues B. Maret, Secretary of State. With seal of the Republic, and engraved symbolical figure.

2844. NAPOLEON. List of Candidates for Promotion, with memoranda in the autograph of Napoleon, granting or refusing, as noted. 4 pp. folio. Undated, but probably sometime in 1800, and in conformity with the "Acte Constitutionnel" of Aug. 27, of that year. Stitched top and bottom, with the Tri-color ribbon.

AN UNUSUAL DOCUMENT, presented by the Minister of War to the Emperor, and giving a list of thirty names of members of the army-corps recommended for promotion, occasioned by the death, resignation, or transfer of others. In 22 instances Napoleon has written "accordé"; in 7, "refusé"; and in one [not decipherable]. The names listed include,—Mallet, Chorant, Frelois, Dumoulin, Bruges, Richomme, &c., names not readily placed historically, though a number may have become famous later. The document has been carefully ruled in ink and pencil, and describes the places to be filled, names and grades of the soldiers proposed. &c.

2845. NAPOLEON. A French translation, in several autographs, of an Extract from an English letter. 4 pp. small 4to. London, July 17 [No year, but circa 1800]. On this Napoleon has countersigned an unusual "NP," with three lines in his autograph, and an erasure-line across several words; also, a sheet, 8vo, containing 5 lines said to be in the autograph of Napoleon, unsigned, except for a curved stroke between two periods. N.p.n.d. (2 pieces, pinned together).

Extract is an account of affairs in England; mentions the names of [Isaac] Corry, Chancellor of the [Irish] Exchequer, and others. The five lines of autograph contain instructions to a certain citizen to have a new copy in French made of the Extract attached for publication in the "Moniteur." If the curved stroke noted be one of Napoleon's abbreviated signatures, it is unknown to Sainsbury. Both pieces are from the collection of Charles Fontaine, with his stamp.

2846. NAPOLEON. D.S. 1 p. oblong folio, on Vellum, Paris, le quatorze Ventôse, l'An XI [March 3, 1803]. Certificate of Promotion of Brigadier Armand Buland. Signature, in full, of "Bonaparte," as First Consul. (Folded).

FINE DOCUMENT, with engraved plate of a symbolical figure, and seal. Countersigned by Alex. Berthier, Minister of War, and Hugues B. Maret, Secretary of State.

2847. NAPOLEON. Appointment of Citizen Larché, President Tribunal of Appeal. 1 p. oblong folio, Vellum (folded). Saint Cloud, le 22 Prairial, l'An XI. [June 11, 1803]. Signed "Bonaparte." Also, contains signatures of [J. A.] Chaptal, Minister of the Interior, and Hugues B. Maret, Secretary of State.

2848. NAPOLEON. L.S. 2 pp., folio. Paris, le 20 Nivôse, l'An 12. [January 11, 1804]. Signed in full, "Bonaparte." With seal of the Republic.

To Cardinal Carlo Erskine, thanking him for his expressions of attachment for him, &c. Countersigned by [J. E. M.] Portalis, one of the reorganizers of the Catholic Church in France, and at this time Counsellor of State; and, Hugues B. Maret, Secretary of State.

2849. NAPOLEON. L. S. from [J. F. A.] Dejean, Ministre-Directeur, Bureau de l'Habillement et du Campement. 2 pp. folio. [Paris], le 1er jour Complémentaire, l'An XIII [1805]. To Napoleon relative to pension for a member of the Army of the Orient, &c. Signed on margin, "Napoleon" in the abbreviated style he had then commenced to assume, together with the word "accordé" in his autograph.

This report is signed by Dejean, and concerns the prices and manufacture of guns, certain brands of which cannot be made as cheaply at Turin as they can be at St. Étienne.

2851. NAPOLEON. A.L.S. from the Prince Sulkowski to "Sa Majesté l'Empereur Français et Roi d'Italie," 3 pp. folio. Czenstochau, March 28, 1807. Mentions certain affairs in Silesia, Prince Jerome Napoleon, &c. Signed "Nap," on margin, April 5, 1807.

Sulkowski was a Polish General who served with distinction under Napoleon, was with him all through the Italian campaign, &c., and to whom the Emperor was sincerely attached. INTERESTING LETTER.

2852. NAPOLEON. L.S. 1 p. 4to, inlaid. Vittoria, November 8, 1808. Signed "NP." To "Prince de Neufchâtel" [Berthier?] mentioning a decree to be made known to the Generals, &c., and to be officially issued by the Minister of War.

2853. NAPOLEON. L.S. 1 p. folio, from a Colonel of Artillery. Vienne, June 6, 1809. Stating condition of two wounded soldiers, and suggesting military recompense for them. Signed "Nap" on left margin, with two lines of autograph. With cut of the Emperor. (2 pieces).

An autograph letter of the highest importance. Commencing "My Dear Friend," he writes: "You do not write to me, nevertheless, in spite of my many occupations, I find time to let you hear from me. I have not the time to tell you of what is going on about me, and what is being done by the enemies of the people and of liberty. However, I shall always have the satisfaction of having done my duty to the best of my ability.

"The esteem of the good citizens well repays me for the hatred the aristocracy bears me. I have just received proof of that esteeem, for I have been made President of the Society of the Friends of the Constitution, which is made up of all the deputies of the National Assembly, and of the best citizens, and from the members of which I have formed a league against the enemies of liberty and of our native land.

"These duties keep me very busy, but I am happy to be able to spend a few moments with you, and want to hear from you. Put your letters in an envelope addressed to the deputies of Artois at the National Assembly.

"Most sincerely yours,

"de Robespierre."

4500. Robespierre (Maximilien M. I.). A. L. unsigned but with a signature cut from another instrument and attached, 2 pp. 4to. Versailles, May 23, no year, but probably 1791.

A highly important letter regarding the National Assembly entirely in the autograph of Robespierre.

"Wednesday last after the nomination of the Commissaries, a member of the Assembly made a motion to name a committee to write and print a paper containing reports of all the operations of the National Assembly. It was proposed by M. de la Borde, son of the Court's banker, but was rejected by the Assembly because it was supposed that the idea was put forward by a certain party who desired to present the acts of the Assembly according to his principles and was looking to that position in a lucrative way.

"This morning M. Target [an eloquent French advocate] renewed the same proposition under another form, but the Assembly rejected it just as quickly, making it very disagreeable for the authors of the motion," etc. The appended signature reads: "Your brother, Robespierre."

A long and interesting letter in which she makes references to her father (Jacques Necker, Prime Minister of France), her son and her daughter. . . . "It seems that a Minister of Finance who wishes to become popular, ought to show himself a little more in favor of the claim of a man who from his own pocket fed Paris, when the city was in want and who refused to receive any compensation. One must not scorn honest people because they have shown themselves very considerate in their claims. . . . The Baron (her father), now in England would have considered public opinion in this matter. . . . I like to tell you of the greatest interest in my life, because it means so much to my daughter. I am sure I shall like you, for you please me," etc.
